

CHICAGO MARKETS.

Wednesday's Quotations on Live Stock, Grain and Provisions.

The General Cattle Market Slow and Dull.

Hogs:--Light Receipts and Higher Prices.

An Active Day in the Grain

The Light Recaptures of Wheat Strengthens Prices.

A Day of Excitement on the Corn Market—Oats, Pork and Lard Steady.

Special Telegram to THE BEE.
CHICAGO, September 17.—Among the fresh arrivals were 140 cars of westerns and fifty or quality. The general market was rather slow as compared with previous days of the week. The proportion of common and for some time, and the demand for such was not at all brisk, with a decline strong to 10 to 15c on everything that did not carry considerable lot. The shipping and demand here for mand was light and uncertain. Native butchers' and canners' stock was rather scarce and sold at steady prices, Texas cows selling as high as $4.00 and a drove of steers as high in the hands of speculators, they having loaded up in anticipation of a good outside demand but so far that demand has been rather light, yet it is expected that there will be medium, 5 75@6 25; Wyomings, Nebraska and Montanas, 4 10@5 25, one extra fine drove making 5 40; range tailings, including cows and bulls, 3 25@3 75; Texans, of 750 to pounds, at 4 40 to 4 50; one lot of choice exporters and best solid corn-fed, 6 80@7 10; good to choice, 1,200 to 1,350 pounds, 6 10@6 65; common to fair, 1,000 to 1,200 pounds 4 80@5 75. Sales 600 Wyoming averaging 351 Texans, 1,050 pounds, 1,050 pounds, 4 60.

HOGS.

The more light-colored breed are irregular were strong and 10c higher all 'round, the greatest advance being on mixed and medium. Good bacon sorts were extremely scarce. Heavy sold at 6 20@6 35; mixed and medium

GRAIN MARKET.
Great activity was infused into the grain

Receipts of wheat are smaller and at other market here opened a shade firmer, then eased off @ 9c, due to the New York statement of the visible supply which showed a larger increase than the Chicago statement but under a good speculative demand it improved closed $\frac{1}{4}$ over yesterday. No change occurred on the afternoon board, the market closing at 76 $\frac{1}{4}$ for October, 85 $\frac{1}{2}$ for November and 80 for December.

The excitement ran high in corn and trading was very active. The chief interest centered in near deliveries. Sept. rose $3\frac{1}{2}$; Oct. $1\frac{1}{2}$; Nov. $1\frac{1}{2}$; and there was naturally a frantic one operator was compelled to cover 250,000 bushels. On the afternoon session, September slid off somewhat, but other options remained firm, closing at 58 for September, 53 for October, 45 1/2 for November, 39 1/2 for May.

ruled higher closing at 25½ for September, 25½ for October, 26 for November.

LARD
easier, closing at 7 15 for September and October, 6 27½ for November.

A Mysterious Floater.
QUINCY, Ill., September 17.—The body of an unknown man was found in the river just below here today, who had evidently been left ear. He was about 35 years of age, weighed 150 pounds, had a sandy moustache, light hair and was well dressed. Nothing was found on his person which could be A Bank Attached.

New York, September 17.—Judge Dono-

attachment against the property of the Mississippi Valley Bank of Vicksburg, Miss., in the action brought by the National Park Bank of this city to recover $43,406 claimed to be A Space-Bender Died.

ST. LOUIS, September 17.—John Nelson, a printer, was shot and killed by Mrs. E. G.

during her husband's absence.

ANDREWS'

DEAR

TRYING TO HOLD DOWN
PEARL BAKING POWDER
IT AMOUNTS TO RISK

BAKING MIXED

PURE CREAM TARTAR.
$1000. Given

very PURE. Being endorsed, and testimonials received from such chemists as S. Dana Hays, Boston; M. Delafontaine, of Chicago; and Gustavus Bode, Milwaukee. Never sold in bulk.

C. E. ANDREWS & CO.

[illegible]